Paris Hears The News.

Paris, Oct. 29.—The report that King George of England had been fatally injured at the front was received here today and caused consternation for a time. It was unofficially reported that he was wounded by a bomb. His horse, the report stated was shot from under him and in addition to receiving a wound from parts of the exploded shell, he was caught under his dead horse in the fall. This report was later denied. However, it is known that grave fear is entertained in London for the stricken monarch and that he is hurt worse than reports indicate, is certain.

DR. EUSTER AND FAMILY MAKE HOME HERE

Rev. W. T. Euster, the new secretary of the conference claimants' endowment campaign which in the nation is raising fifteen million dollars in order to save the ministry for the immediate future and thereby save the church, arrived last night with his family.

They will make their home in Guthrie on account of the social and educational advantages. Dr. Euster will be absent in his field which includes all of Oklahoma and Northern Texas, most of the time.

A very important work will be the information bureau located here for the purpose of disseminating information over this territory in relation to this national movement and what it means for the future of the church.

Mr. Euster has a family of six, three daughters and one son with him while another son is located in Portland, Oregon.

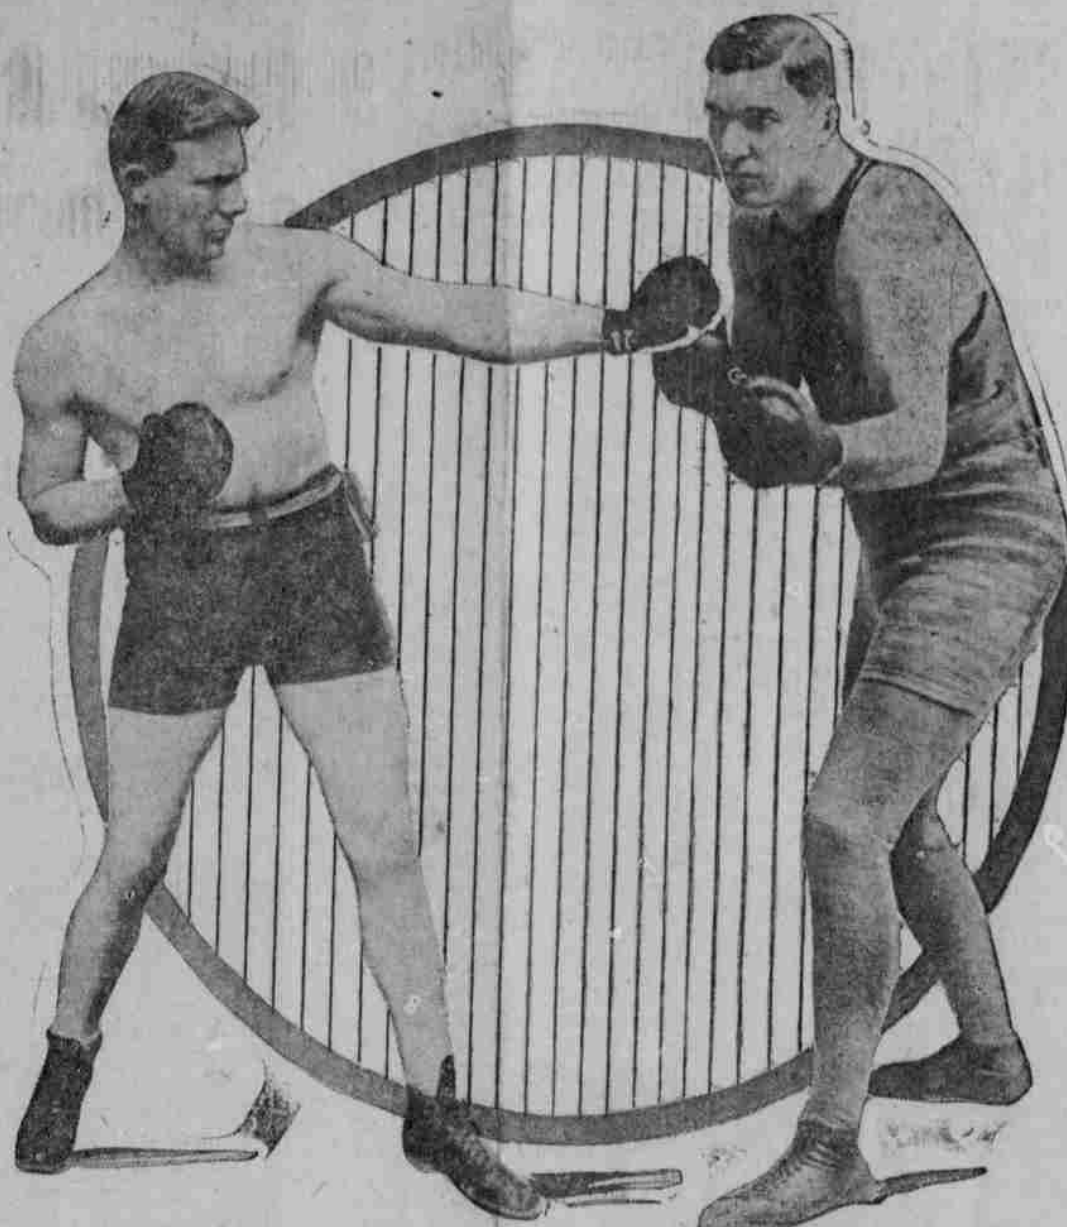

The central office will begin operations at once in sending out literature covering the work in hand. A paper will also be published here called "The Oklahoma Veteran," which will be filled with interesting matter relative to early times in Oklahoma and the work during those days of the preacher and the church.

CHISUM IS "BAD RISK;" WANTED ELSEWHERE

Dave Wallace, former Guthrie drugist now practicing law at Okmulgee is in Guthrie today. He is here watching the Chisum case. "Chisum is wanted in our county on a charge of disposing of mortgaged property and is under bond to appear for trial next Tuesday morning; if he fails to appear his bond will be forfeited in that county like it was in this county. I am in hopes that Logan county will 'lend' him to us for a few days."

Chisum is also under bond in Cleveland county to appear next month on a charge of subornation of perjury, which grew out of the case now on trial here. His bond in Cleveland county is $1,500 and in Okmulgee $1,000. Chisum will probably encounter much trouble in securing another bond in this county. He is now in jail. Suit was started by the county attorney today to collect the $1,000 bond forfeited by the court yesterday.

When Will These Two Meet

Frank Moran.

Jess Willard.

The logical white hope candidate for championship honors is Frank Moran of Pittsburgh. He is very anxious to get Jess Willard, a much larger man, into the ring; for any really popular heavyweight champion ought to be able to make $500,000 before he is knocked out.

Here are the measurements of the HEART IN COURT

TENSE MOMENT IN GRAHAM TRIAL WHEN UGLY KNIVES FLASH

"Fellow, right here and now I'm going to cut out your black spotted heart!"

With these ominous words issuing from his pursed lips while his matted black mane whirled wildly in the breeze, Moman Pruitt, spectacular criminal attorney of Oklahoma City, advanced threateningly on E. I. Sadler, colored attorney, in county court Thursday night during the trial of William H. Graham, charged with complicity in the Chisum blackmail.

As Pruitt advanced he pulled from his pocket a murderous-looking Barlow knife and ran his poker thumb along the blade thereof. Without tating an eye, Sadler, quick as a wink, whipped out a Mexican mocha blade and cried: "Let him come; I call his bet!"

For a moment a tense stillness pervaded the sweat-laden court room, crowded to capacity with colored people interested in the trial. Then a craning of bodies and a "tuff-tuff" of sound betokened the pulling of a hundred knives. A free-for-all cutting affray was imminent.

On came Pruitt, blade brandishing and now flocking foam from his lips. Sadler awaited, with poised dagger. Just as Pruitt muttered, sotto voce, to the court, "Isn't anybody going to hold me," Sheriff Sherwood and Deputies Robertson and Redmon sprang into the offing and averted what might have been a wholesale blood-letting. The court withheld reprisal.

Pruitt represents President Page and is assisting Prosecutor Swank in the cases of Chisum and Graham, on trial for alleged conspiracy, libel and blackmail of President Page in Chisum's newspaper, Sadler and Ramsey appear for Chisum and Graham. Pruitt had taken umbrage at Sad-two men, by which it may be seen that Moran is nearly as big as any heavyweight champion, and larger than most. But Willard is by all odds the biggest heavyweight champion the ring has known:

17½ in.	Neck 17½ in.
44½ in.	Chest, normal 44 in.

37 in.	Waist 36 in.
26 in.	Thigh 23 in.
17 in.	Calf 15½ in.

Moran having beaten Jim Coffey, the press agent bubble of Billy Gibson of New York, is hailed as the logical challenger of Willard. At the present moment it seems he is, if we overlook Sam Langford and Joe

SHOT DOWN MAN WHO RAN AUTO OVER LITTLE SON

"HE KILLED MY BOY AND I

FATHER

(By Associated Press.)
Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 29.—"He killed my little boy, he ran him down in the street and crushed out his little life and I shot him," sobbed William Sherwood, 23, a lumberman, as he stood before the booking desk of police headquarters, accompanied by his aged father.

Sherwood had come to the station to surrender for wounding H. L. Stroud, proprietor of a motor livery business, who, on September 20th, ran down and killed Jack, the eight-year-old son of the lumberman.

Sherwood met Stroud on the street last night and shot him.

NEW RULING ON GARNISHMENT LAW

An opinion in two cases that have been submitted to the attorney general has been prepared by that office holding that the garnishment law of the recent legislature that makes as per cent of current wages liable to execution is not applicable to teachers of public schools because of the law that prevents the garnishment of a municipal subdivision.

The public school district being a municipal subdivision there is no chance to levy garnishment on the current wages of school teachers.

"And when thou prayest," Mat. sixth chapter.

The evangelist used almost the entire sixth chapter of Matthew as a text, and he found therein many of the answers and explanations needed in a clear and lucid understanding of the deep, broad, important and interesting topic of prayer. Dr. Smiley, Thursday night, showed just who should pray, just when they should pray; just how they should pray and what they should pray for; and conditions does not forbid us to pray anywhere, it does admonish us not to "pray to be seen of men," as did those old Jewish politicians, who cared only that their followers should see them on the street corners and in the most public places, with long faces and closed eyes, in order that they might be counted as "devout men." Jesus classed all such as hypocrites. Jesus taught us just when, where and how to pray.

God knows before we ask it just what we need. But we do not pray in order to inform God what to do for us and how He should do, but that we may know and remember our needs and who supplies them. It serves as a good reminder to us, and not to God. Without prayer we would soon grow careless and would actually forget whence comes all our blessings. The large audience then, joined with the leader in the Lord's Prayer in a devout and most solemn and reverential manner.

The evangelist then made a strong and impressive lesson of the latest wireless telephone achievement, like the earnest petitions which have for ages been ascending by wireless to the great throne of grace, with Jesus at the "other end of the line." Dr. Smiley then gave numerous instances of the direct answer to pray. He al-

ALSO SAYS GOV. WILLIAMS WILL SOON NAME SUCCESSOR TO LATE

"The vacancy in the court occasioned by the death of A. Brown of Mangum will be filled by appointment by Governor Williams, the appointee to hold a next regular election. That will give the appointee about one year on the bench," said Moman Pruitt, prominent Democrat and well known criminal lawyer who is here today representing Prof. L. E. Page in the prosecution of Melton J. Chisum.

The term for which the late Justice Brown was chosen last year was an unexpired fraction and will end with next year. The election that is to be held following the coming appointment will therefore be a full six year term.

Judge Brown was from the Fifth supreme court district, which embraces the counties across the entire west side of the state. The appointment will be made from that district.

Among the men who are considered possibilities in connection with the appointment is Judge C. M. Thayer of Mangum, a member at this time of the supreme court commission, who has had considerable experience on the commission and whose loyalty and devotion to Governor Williams makes his selection a matter of immediate possibility. Judge R. Brett of Cordell, also a member of the supreme court commission and a good friend of the gov-
